CHECULAR OF HOLLINGSHEAD, FITLEY & CO. LIVERPOOL, June 12, 1951. The cotton market has presented no new feature de serving of particular notice this week. The demand con-tinues pretty good, the daily transactions seldom being ing some trifle more than the week's consumption, speculators small purcels daily, and for export the dedoing; the sales to shippers seldom being less than 1,000 bales per day. With all this business, however, this is the fifth week in which the sales have been upwards of 10,000 bales. The market does not yet appear to be sufficiently relieved, and the quantity offering is still so much in excess of the demand, that there is no buoyas cy in regard to prices, but a degree of heaviness, which, it seems probable, extensive sales alone can remove. Ame rican descriptions are, however, as regards active business a shade dearer than last week; but the quotations remain as given in our previous circular. 3,020 bales American and 180 Surat were taken on speculation, with 4,600 Ame rican, and 270 Pernams, and 1,120 Surat, &c., for export leaving for the trade 37,000 bales. EDITORS OF THE N. Y. TRIBUNE:-A friend has just called my attention to an editorist article in your paper of the 5th inst, headed "The St. Domingo Annexation Scheme," in which I find the

1. That I was sent to that island by Messrs. Polk and Buchanan.

2. (It is insinuated) that while there, as the diplomatic representative of the United States, I made proposals, as the agent of a company of American speculators to supply the Deminican government with war steamers and selonists from the United States.

3. That the ultimate object of the United States government in sending me there, as well as the purpose of the proposals so alleged to have been made by me to that government, was the annexation of the island as slave territory to the United States.

Pennit me to say that the singular confusion of dates in the editorial referred to, and the "startling political revelations" extracted from a parely commercial enterprise, might seem to have been ingeniously resorted to for the purpose of catering to the appetits of your readers, and of showing on what small capital an exciting leader can be manufactured in these quier times. But as I wish to believe that you were actuated by a better motive, I beg leave to taske known to you and your readers.

Ist. Treat I was not sent to Saint Bomingo by Mesarz. Pulk and Suchanan but by Gen. Taylor and Mr. Clayton; that I was not selected because I was a Southernmen, shilled or zealous "in the ameration line," but because the government, required some confidential person, who speke Spanish to repel immediately to the Wert Indies. Nor did I accept the missin out of any seni for ameration, but reductantly, and, as it tuned out, unfortunately for myself, as the conditioneon which I consented to go, and which were insteaded to compensate me for the interraption of my business, were not fulfilled at the time of Gen. Taylor's sudden death. As the government has not thought proper yet to make public the object and results of my mession. I do not feels at liberty to state what was the object. But I may with propriety say, that it was not either annexation or the extension of slavery, as charged by you; that so far as I am informed or believe, neither ever occurred to the mids of those who sent me, or was contemplated by me.

2. Your imputation that I united to the official character of a diplomatic representative that of an agent for a company of American speculators, it wholly undeserved; and the charge that I made proposals in the latter capacity, while I was "like Excellency, or duty accredited charge de affaires of the United States," is wholly untrue. Aly mission was a secret one, and I was not to make nyself known until such time as circumstances should require; and insemuch as on ay arrival I made dilgent inquiries in regard to the country its products, wealth, capabilities, &s., it was for some time supposed by manywhose misconceptions I did not think it necessary or expedient to remove—that my object was commerce and preculation. I treat that you have not availed yourself of this circumstance t
